Comstock Saloon Brings the Barbary Coast to North Beach

We're a week out from the opening of Comstock Saloon, a Barbary Coast–inspired gastropub in North Beach being brought forth by two former Absinthe bar impresarios. The menu will showcase fresh takes on old-timey cocktails and classic San Francisco saloon fare (think potted pork, crab cocktail, beef and bone marrow pot pie), overseen by Carlo Espinas (most recently at Camino), available both in a back dining room and the bar until the wee hours. You can check out the menus right here (155 Columbus Ave.; 415-617-0071).
